Dance/USA inspires a Spotlight on Dance in Chicago this Spring 2011.

Chicago, IL In anticipation of the Dance/ USA 2011 Annual Conference (in Chicago July 16-20), dozens of dance companies are stepping out for Spotlight on Dance in Chicago. From March through the end of July, over 100 performances will take place showcasing the strength, scope and diversity of Chicago's dance community. Some of Chicago's best known companies - the Joffrey Ballet and River North Dance Chicago - and some of its best kept secrets - Nomi LaMad and Laboratory Dancers - will present tap, jazz, ballet, modern, contemporary, ethnic and every dance in-between. Dance will be happening in the loop at the Auditorium Theater, Ruth Page Center for the Arts, Harris Theater for Music and Dance, and the Museum of Contemporary Art; the south loop at The Dance Center of Columbia College Chicago; and outside the loop at the Beverly Arts Center, Hamlin Park Field House, Links Hall, and other venues. Chicago Dance/USA Host Committee sponsored receptions, free with admission, will be held at eight of these events, and feature a Dance/USA special guest. For more information about upcoming pre-conference events, audiences can find "Spotlight on Dance in Chicago" on facebook, or visit Audience Architects at audiencearchitects.com/2011conference.
